

New Providence 2019 campaign finance review

Matsikoudis and Munoz for Council

Information contained in this report comes from the December 2, 2019 Form R-1 submitted to the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission. The information in this report was compiled, reviewed and produced by Allen Swanson for Truth Matters NP. Send questions or comments to truthmattersnp@gmail.com.

The summary of cumulative receipts and expenditures appears below in Tables 1 and 2 and have been rounded to the nearest dollar. An examination of this data reveals total receipts of $23,251 and total expenditures of $21,636. Remaining in the campaign funds was a surplus of $1,615. No disposition of those funds has been reported. The campaign may retain them for future uses within the campaign financing laws.

New Providence 2019 campaign finance review

Matsikoudis and Munoz for Council

Contributions

Reported Contributions are provided in Table 1 below and are limited to large or primary sources. Contributions of $300 or less are combined below.

Table 1 – Contributions
Under $300 (combined)	$4,651
Republican Committee of Union County	$7,000
Munoz for Assembly	$1,500
Bramnick for Assembly	$2,500
DeSarno and Cumiskey for Council	$500
Kean for Senate	$1,000
New Providence Republican Committee	$5,600
Robert Robinson (council member)	$500
Total	$23,251

New Providence 2019 campaign finance review

Matsikoudis and Munoz for Council

Expenditures

Reported Expenditures are provided in Table 2 below. Expenditures like bank fees, office supplies, and other insignificant expenses are combined and included in the 'other' category.

Table 2 – Expenditures
Signs	$950
Mailings/Printing	$11,724
Phone bank	$1,000
Salary payments to 28 individuals	$4,000
Staff food and beverage	$535
Fundraising food and beverage	$1,500
Election night party	$1,842
Other †	$85
Total	$21,636

† miscellaneous expenses (bank fees, office supplies, etc...)

